

Si View Metro Parks News Release

CALL FOR INSTRUCTORS!

North Bend, WA (April 30, 2010) – Calling all professional instructors! Whether your passion is in the arts, music, languages, cooking, health & wellness, outdoors, gardening, athletics or something else, we'd like to meet you and help you share your passion of teaching with the Snoqualmie Valley community.

The Si View Metropolitan Park District offers a variety of classes, workshops and activities for all ages from tots to seniors. As the Snoqualmie Valley population grows, demand for new programs is also on the rise. Currently classes are offered in the areas of aquatics, youth and adult athletics, cultural arts, health & wellness, wide range of youth programs and specialized recreation.

Instructors who have an interest in contributing their knowledge and expertise are encouraged to contact the park district staff at 425-831-1900 to learn how they can provide services to diversify and compliment current programming of Si View Metropolitan Park District. Together we can offer new opportunities for enhancing the quality of life through recreation programs in the Snoqualmie Valley.
