SNAP MARKET MATCH
SNAP Market Match is a statewide nutrition incentive program that helps low-income families and individuals increase their ability to purchase fresh and local fruits and vegetables from local farmers markets.

HOW SNAP MARKET MATCH WORKS
If you use SNAP/EBT/P-EBT:
- Visit the Information Booth at the North Bend Farmers Market.
-Swipe your EBT or P-EBT card for the amount you want to spend.
- You will receive that amount in EBT/P-EBT tokens and up to $25 in SNAP Market Match dollars.
- With your EBT tokens, you can buy:
  - Fresh vegetables, fresh fruits, mushrooms, fresh herbs, and seeds and plants that produce food (for example, tomato seeds or tomato plants)
- With your Market Match dollars, you can shop for fresh vegetables, fruits, mushrooms, herbs, and seeds that produce food (ex. tomato seeds and tomato plants).

Visiting another farmers market? There are over 100 farmers markets in Washington State that participate in SNAP Market Match. For more information, visit doh.wa.gov/SNAPMarketMatch

WIC & SENIOR FARMERS MARKET NUTRITION PROGRAM (SFMNP)
The Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) is a grant program provided by the USDA to help agencies promote the nutrition of low-income seniors with an electronic card preloaded with funds for produce and other eligible foods. This program works for direct sales of producer to consumer.
- To be eligible for Senior FMNP, you must be 60 or older and have an annual income below 185% of the Federal Poverty Level. For more information about the Senior FMNP program, visit the Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program.
- You can use your Senior FMNP pre-loaded electronic cards can be used at the market with your electronic card to buy fresh fruits and vegetables. (No change is given.)

WIC FMNP preloaded electronic cards are specifically to be used for purchasing fresh fruits and vegetables at Farmers Markets (note that no cash change is given). Look for farm booths with the posted WIC signage. Visit WIC FMNP for more information.

WIC and Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Programs are sponsored by the US Dept of Agriculture; the WA State Dept of Health, Community Wellness and Prevention; and the WA State Dept of Social and Health Services, Aging and Disability Services Administration.